

REASONS WHY Ravindra Jadeja will continue his association with Chennai Super Kings

Meta Description - "Ravindra Jadeja has announced his association with the Chennai Super Kings and we are in awe to see him swinging his sword in IPL 2023".

IPL and the fan's tittle-tattle is something that always goes on and off the field is the biggest cricket festival league in the country and the world. Ever since the conclusion of last year's IPL season, the name of Ravindra Jadeja an ace allrounder to CSK has been the constant buzz of discussion. The sports media and the fans have been making all possible unalike guesses about the association of cricketers with the south franchise.

However, the tweet from Jadeja himself a few days ago has cleared all the sky of made-up stories by simply uttering " everything is fine". The tweet has ensured the association of Ravindra Jadeja with the CSK for the next season as the franchise itself has retained the star around.

Ravindra Jadeja is arguably a substantial player of CSK who also played the role of leadership in the last season for a part of IPL. However, the captaincy was subsequently handed back to the MSD himself after the substandard performance of CSK which cost the franchise the qualification to the playoff. Post CSK's early group stage exit from the league fueled several types of rumors between Jadeja and the management itself. There was the grim hypothesis stating that the ace allrounder could possibly be released by the franchise.

CSK Retention of Ravindra Jadeja

We earlier got the retention and the release list of all IPL franchises for the coming season next year. CSK has retained Jadeja putting aside all the discussion and reasons why Ravindra Jadeja will continue his association with Chennai Super Kings. It was definitely significant news not for the specific fans of whistle-Podu but also from the perspective of the whole IPL league season 2023.

The stage has been all set for the Chennai Super Kings as MS Dhoni is back again in the driving seat to lead the franchise yet again. CSK is apparently backing its vintage pool strength to take on the next season and there are definitely significant expectations this season from the yellow fans.

Reasons why Ravindra Jadeja will continue his association with the Chennai Super Kings

Well, when the master of CSK himself hails the star cricketer as Sir Jadeja then there definitely has to be the bigger picture in the ground. Amidst all the rumors and chit-chat buzz, the franchise with the straightforward brainer has retained Ravindra Jadeja. Undoubtedly for the stature that Jadeja has for his name, any franchise would be interested to trade him from CSK for big bucks. However, that never became the scenario either from the franchise or from the player himself at least not on the surface.

Here are the top factors that could justify why Ravindra Jadeja will continue his role for the CSK.

The Leadership Crisis

It's a well-known fact that CSK has always looked upon the leadership of MSD when it comes to bagging excellence in the IPL. It is evident that the franchise has won four IPL seasons and all of them are under the undisputed legacy of Dhoni. Ravindra Jadeja is the name that comes with similar potential and exposure however still needs to prove himself in leadership terms. Yet we believe that CSK is definitely eyeing Jadeja to entrust him with the leadership role probably once Dhoni steps down in the next 2 probable seasons.

CSK Talent Valuing Cum Exposure Policy

CSK can be termed as the orthodox or the traditional franchise when it comes to picking up its talent pool. The franchise in recent times has released the popular names of senior players who contributed to them for a long period of time. CSK has the mindset of valuing and believing in the old wine with fine exposure. Ravindra Jadeja is the player who fits their requirements in the same terms as he has been around with them since 2018. Also, he is one of the finest talents in the league games barring his world's no 1 all-rounder status. So technically CSK has been heaping all the praise on the allrounder to retain him for the longer terms.

Old Cheapauk IPL Format

BCCI has already confirmed that the next season of IPL will be played in the home and away format. It simply states that CSK will be playing seven games at MA Chidambaram stadium which is considered their fortress. The stadium is also known for the CSK spinning wizard show where they trap the most games for the opposition. Jadeja being the left-arm spinner has done the job immensely perfect for the CSK at the crunch point. So all alike are in the favor of him which shows why CSK is after his long-term retention in their pool.

The Dhoni Factor

Dhoni is probably the name in CSK that holds weightage as of the management itself and no wonder why the franchise revolves around him. It is widely known that Jadeja is an ace or simply Ikka for the master MSD who uses sir Jadeja like a charm. This duo of Dhoni and Jadeja can together do the wonder and turn the tables for CSK from any grim situation of the match. Clearly, Dhoni was never in the favor of releasing Ravindra Jadeja and also Jadeja idolize Thala significantly so their bonding is still paving the way to another season of IPL for CSK.

Our Verdict on CSK Retention of Ravindra Jadeja

Just like our cricketing fans we are also very much in favor of advocating the CSK choice of retaining ace allrounder. Ravindra Jadeja is the game changer a quick fire with both the bat and bowl who has proven his worth for his side more than we can recall it. He is a savior for the franchise and also their fortune builder by giving his every possible bit on the ground to the franchise.
